WORK ON CANNERY BEING RUSHED

Sebastiani Plant Begining to Show Magnitude of Enterprise. Help Will be Transported To Aid in Work

About half the concrete work on the big Sebastiani cannery has been completed and the structure which occupies a big frontage along the tracks of the Northwestern Pacific, is begining to show what a big plant Sonoma is to have. Provision has also been made for expansion if necessary and additions can be added to the rear of the structure with good effect.

Mr. Sebastiani expects to have the cannery plant in full operation by July 1st when 125 hands will be needed. Women and girls to the number of 100 will be given employment. A special motor truck conveyance has been purchased to transport the help to and from their homes night and morning. The motor carrier will make the trip up one side of the valley and down the other so that those who live out of town can get to work.

Work at the cannery will be piece work and very liberal so that wages much over the minimum will be possible for employees.

At the present time twenty men are working at the Sebastiani plant and Mr. Sebastiani's payroll is already over $100 per day. Besides he has 8 ranch hands cultivating the big Sonoma Valley ranch which he has planted out to tomatoes. Here the latest type of farm machinery is in vogue, tractors, cultivators and other necessary implements.

STIRRING SONG COMPOSED BY MRS. F. McG. MARTIN

"Columbia's Sons" is the title of a stirring patriotic song, words by Fraces McG. Martin of Santa Rosa and music by Prof. James S. Sweet.

Mrs. Martin former teacher here and county superintendent of schools, has put some fine thoughts into the three verses and it is predicted that the song will be a big seller. It is a war song above the average. Orders for it may be left at this office. 15 cents per copy.

Willie Sutter has gone to France.

The Kearns ranch at Eldridge has been sold to R. O. Serck, a wealthy English importer, for $156,000 cash. Serck is engaged in shipping from Yokahoma.

A $10,000 residence is to be constructed for C. C. Monroe at Kenwood by Oakland contractors.

DRUIDS BUY $1200 LIBERTY BONDS

Local Lodge Is Patriotic and Brings Up Sonoma's Subscription. Installs Officers.

At an enthusiastic meeting last Saturday night the local lodge of Druids voted to withdraw lodge funds to the amount of $1200 which has been on deposit in the German bank in San Francisco and invest the money in the Liberty Bonds of the 3rd Loan. The money was taken out and the bonds bought this week through the First National Bank of Sonoma.

The U. A. O. D. has always been one of our most flourishing organizations and installed the new officers on the 4th inst. They are as follows:

P. A., E. Pasquini; N. A., A. Bertelotti; V. A., S. Cordutti; O. G., R. Famochi; I. G., B. Anselmi; Treasurer, F. Canevari; Secretary, A. Beretta; District Deputy, A. Baccala.

$160 JOB GOES a'BEGGING

Patrons of the rural delivery service who have been accustomed to getting their mail at the farm house gate are begining tothink that war is h—l for the service has been badly disrupted this week owing to the lack of carriers and had to be entirely suspended. Carrier Geo. Carpenter went to war and then Geo. Stickel was assigned to the job as a substitute carrier. Carrier Geo. did it all right but when a regular civil service appointee, C. S. Gossin of Eldridge was put on the rural route he tried it out and found that he did not want the job. He quit cold and Postmaster Wagnon frantically wired the Department to send him a new man. The next eligible was Hugh Noe and a telegram sent to him at Healdsburg was not delivered immediately but followed him to Oakland where he has been working in the ship yards. Noe wired however that he will come to Sonoma and be on the job by Monday and providing he likes the looks of it he may stay. Mr. Wagnon is making every effort to restore the service as quickly as possible.

The salary of Sonoma's rural carrier is $160 per month with no real takers to date.

The Congregational Ladies will meet at the Appleton home Tuesday instead of the Hunter-Hanger home as little Maxine Hunter is very ill with the measles.

GLOVE FACTORY HERE GROWS

New Additions To Local Branch of Big Manufacturing Concern. More Help Taken On

The Sonoma branch of the California Glove Factory is making such a good showing in the number of employees and applicants for work that several new tables, more electric machines and other equipment has been installed in the Masonic building this week and also in the cutting department in the Heggie building. More help has been taken on and more is still wanted. In the cutting department Superintendent Munk announces that new hands will be instructed until by July he expects to have 60 men at work all making good wages.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, managers of the girls department, are enthusiastic over Sonoma's help and declare some of their girls are developing exceptional ability. Irene Rambo Seawell, whose husband has gone to war has accepted employment with the local factory where she has a responhible position.

The work now being turned out for the U. S. army was inspected by Capt. Stephens on Tuesday and pronounced first class. The government requires exact dimensions and materials. The leather going into the present army mit formerly went into shoes. It is a high grade material and the hides come to the local factory all finished and dyed the required olive shade. They are finished on one side and undressed on the other. The finished leather goes into the palms and thumbs of the mits and the undressed leather into the upper side of the glove. A gun metal buckle at the wrist is used for a clasp.

The army requires olive or smoke color leather now instead of the former yellow shades which could be easily detected by the enemy and served as a mark at a distance of several miles.

In all 14 new machines were installed this week and the output before long is expected to run from 150 to 300 dozen gloves per day.

SONOMA SHOULD ORGANIZE RURAL FIRE FIGHTERS

Napa county has organized its rural districts into fire fighting units to protect the grain fields, timber and hills from conflagation this coming summer. The County Farm Advisor started the movement which would also be welcome in Sonoma Valley where every dry season we experience destructive forest fires. Last year some effort was made by the supervisors empowering the deputy sheriff to hire fire fighters in emergency at $2.50 per day. Even then men were hard to get and under present conditions it would be impossible to hire anyone should our ranches be menaced by flames. A community organization is therefore the only solution.

The plan of organization followed in Napa county is to divide the county into twenty-two districts, each headed by a chief who will be designated a fire warden by the State Forester, and a Deputy Sheriff by the Sheriff. His duties will be to ask eleven neighbors to join his company, to equip the company with a light truck, which will carry barrels, buckets, tools, fire extinguishers, and other paraphernalia for extinguishing fire. The company is drilled in fire fighting. It takes charge of such fires as arise, investigates their cause, inspects all property in its district with reference to fire risk, attends to necessary plowing around grain stacks and backs the prosecution of those responsible for fires.

The organization in Napa county has been under the direction of the County Farm Adviser, he, in turn, acting with the cooperation and direction of G. M. Homans, State Forester.

POPPE CHRISTENS IT "CANARY COTTAGE"

President Robt. A. Poppe of the Board of Managers of the Sonoma State Home has a discriminating taste. When he was asked to name the new cottage being built for Morons at the Eldridge institution, he promptly christened it "Canary Cottage." Whether Mr. Poppe occupied a front seat at a recent musical comedy of that name and it made a hit with him deponents saith not, but the fanciful name suggestive of warbling birds in gilded cages is certainly a pretty one to say the least. Just so long as "the Colonel" confines his appellation to that portion of the aviary where cannaries disport themselves, all well and good, but should he christen some cottage Pelican, Blackbird or Chippy Cottage, we have a hunch that the inmates would rebel.

Canary Cottage, however, is one beautiful, soulful name.

ARRIVED SAFELY IN AFRICA

A telegram was received by Mrs. Frank Thompson Monday telling her of the safe arrival in Africa of her sister, Mrs. Edwin Cozzens and her husband who left here on the 15th of February for their field of missionary work.

They journeyed first to France and from there disembarked, taking a tramp sailing vessel to the African port.

Mrs. Thompson had not heard of the travelers since March first so was much relieved to hear of their safe passage.

Frank Weyl is spending a few days with his folks here. This is his first visit home in 14 years. He is employed at the N. W. P. shops at Tiburon.

ANGEL OF DEATH CALLS CHILD

Margaret Shaw, pretty little ten year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaw of Corcoran, passed away Thursday after an acute attack of pneumonia.

She was a beautiful girl, bright and winsome, the joy of the household and her death is a sad blow to her bereaved parents.

The deceased was born here in Sonoma and her passing is keenly regretted by many friends and her grand parents Mrs. M. Shaw and Mr. T. J. McGimsey.

Beside her parents the little girl is survived by a brother several years her junior. The funeral will take place here tomorrow.

The people of Kenwood give an allied dinner tonight and dedicate a service flag for their soldiers.

CHAUVET OPENING GRAND SUCCESS

Monroe & Nielsen Prove Hospitable Hosts Saturday Night

Chauvet Hall never looked prettier than it did for the opening of the big Glen Ellen hotel of Monroe and Nielsen last Saturday night. It was in gala attire, the patriotic note being a dominant one in the decorative scheme. Beautiful ferns fresh from the woods and festooned against the walls and tiny blue and red flowers interwoven with them. At intervals were shields of the red, white and blue, flags and here and there fantastic lanterns. It was in all a charming effect and the dancers generally spoke of the natural beauty of the decorations and the splendid taste of the decorators.

In addition the music furnished by Messrs Monroe and Nielsen was excellent and the crowd which was gradually augmented by midnight, danced with evident enjoyment until a late hour.

At midnight the management served one of the finest suppers provided at a Sonoma Valley dance for a long time. It was a hot supper, fried chicken and all that went with it, including delicious ice cream.

The opening of the Chauvet was certainly most auspicious and Monroe and Nielsen were wished much success.

A feature of the evening was two beautiful vocal numbers by Miss Palmer, daughter of the president of the Northwestern railroad and her aunt, Mrs. Jones, both accomplished musicians.

CAPT. AND MRS. ZACHARY VISIT SONOMA VALLEY

Capt. Zachary and wife were the guests of Mrs. R. J. Snyder over the last week end. Capt. Zachary has just arrived on his sailing vessel and was over 100 days out from Manila. His wife had become anxious concerning his ship but he made port without mishap.

The captain declares he has been before the mast for 51 years but he must have gone to sea when a baby fer he looks young, hale and hearty. He declares that a sailor's life now days is not what it used to be for the modern treatment of sea faring men is the finest on land or sea either. They have the best food the market affords and lots of variety. In the the captain's salad days there was salt meat and hard tack only but that is all changed now.

His sailing vessel is being converted into a big oil carrier to bring cocoanut oil from Manila and it will be one of the finest tankers on the run. The company has given Capt. Zachary the privilege of designing and outfitting a cabin to suit himself and wife. They are to have the most luxurious quarters with tub and shower baths, dining saloon and every comfort.

Mrs. Zachary expects to make the first trip with her husband on the new carrier. She is a good sailor and loves the sea.

TULE VISTA WAR RALLY

School District Will Combine Graduation Exercises and Patriotic Program

Tule Vista school district in the southern part of the valley is 100 per cent patriotic and is going to demonstrate it at the graduation exercises, Saturday night, May 18th, when a fine patriotic demonstration will be held in connection with the closing program.

The graduates this year are Miss Frances Thompson and Miss Edith Cancardeden.

The school pupils will present a fine literary and musical program and a patriotic speaker is to be sent by the Petaluma Council to give a fine talk on the war. Mrs. F. T. Duhring will speak on Red Cross work, a subject very close to the hearts of the pupils and teacher of Tule Vista School for the children of that district have been doing lots of excellent work, knitting, sewing and collecting funds for the great work of the Junior Red Cross.

Everyone is invited to join with Tule Vista on the 18th in their big war rally and a banner evening is promised all who attend.

REPORT OF FRANK KOENIG'S ILLNESS IN LOS ANGELES

Frank Koenig is seriously ill at Los Angeles, and word from the sick room at a hospital in the southern metropolis is far from reassuring. It is not believed that Mr. Koenig will ever be able to again leave his bed and the news of his death may come at any time.

This will be sad news to the hosts of friends of genial "Pop" Koenig, who has spent many years of his active life in this city and county. While here he was the efficient steward of the Elks' Club, and when he left here engaged in the hotel business at Sonoma. l.

Some time ago Mr. Koenig went to San Francisco and from there to Los Angeles, and in each of the cities consulting specialists for a malady that had beset him. Medical science has been unable to provide a cure and only temporary relief, and it is believed there is but little hope for the life of this good citizen.

Santa Rosa Republican.

A card has been received from the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vella from Shasta Springs, enroute to Portland and Seattle.

WILL RING FIRE BELL

On request of the Red Cross members the City Trustees have agreed to have the fire bell in the city hall tower ring on the meeting nights of the Red Cross. In this way the members will be reminded of the second and fourth Fridays which are Red Cross nights and should be well attended.

Mayor Dal Poggetto has arranged with the janitor to ring the bell in time for those who are busy with other activities to get ready and go.

The Faucets Are All Open

From one end of the state to the other there is concern over the cost of running the state these war times for as yet there has been no effort to stop the extravagance put into effect by Hiram Johnson's commissions. All are getting away with it under Stephens regime and with all the preachment of patriotism there are just as many political snaps as ever, surely a disgrace in the face of the effort of individuals to economize most rigidly. Says the Los Angeles Times:

"We have given our sons and our treasure as individuals, offered them as sacrifices on the altars of democracy. But we have stopped when we paid out our money and saw our sons entrained for the service camps. The great sources of public waste have not been checked. The faucets are all open. The spouts are running with out surcease. Every day the drain on our resources goes on unchecked. Among all the candidates for Governor, not one has dared to come forward with a platform in opposition to the forty fat commissions.

"Our boys are marching cheerfully to their heroic sacrifice; they march along the road to France as jauntily as though death in a thousand forms were not awaiting them "over there." But what are we doing on the home front? Some of the revelations of frittering away of funds collected for patriotic purposes are shocking. The greater the patriotism displayed by our sons ond brothers, the more blinded we seem to become to the encroachments of greed and petty ambition about us. As long as we permit a waste of $50,000,000 a year in State, county and municipal funds in California we are not keeping faith with those gallant lads, blood of our blood and bone of our bone, who have gone farther than any generation of Americans before them to fight the battles to make the world safe for decency. We must face this grim situation grimly. We must work harder and save more. We must shut off the great leaking spouts of official incompetency and waste."

The Merits of the Man

A contemporary Santa Rosa weekly has at last rattled a thought out of its brain box. Although it has been sevrael months since we have seen original thought from that quarter, the Sonoma Index-Tribune's recent editorial, "A Bone Dry Governor Not For California," stirred brother Sage to a 13 line squib in which he commends us for having a policy and then proceeds to show that he does not have the faintest conception of our point of view on the liquor question

The heading of the Index-Tribune editorial, written after Governor Stephens announced that he was bone dry both for the national prohibition ratification and for state prohibition, embodies the sentiment of the Index-Tribune. We do not believe that any candidate for governor of the state of California should be elected on such a platform. Our differance is not with Governor Stephens but with propaganda of which he is the disciple which spells ruination to one of our largets industries. It is not for a state like California so peculiarly adapted to grape growing, wine making, etc., to line up on this reform program or to elect a man pledged to ruin thousands of its best citizens. Let other states do it if they are crazy enough to believe in the fallacies of law made temperance but not for California. We venture the opinion that the hopes of a dry governor for reelection might better be nailed up and affined rather than the investments, livelihood, liberty, natural character development and privileges of thousands of California's most substantial citizens.

But this question wherein California's natural adaptation to vines and wines is but one phase, wherein commercial reasons are small ones in comparison to the bigger side of justice and fair play has another side which would make us against prohibition no matter where reformers would urge its adoption. Prohibition can not do what it purports to and is not the real way to true temperance.

Says the Sage comment: "Whether Governor Stephens is reelected or not we must give him credit for being as sincere in his belief in the evils of booze as Editor Murphy is in his belief in its merits." Stephens is no doubt sincere in his belief in the evils of booze but that is as far as he sees, beyond that, his is a blind frenzied desire to end it once and for all. He wants to reform mankind automatically. We do not. We do not nor never have advocated the merits of "booze." Booze is a word that savors of abuse. There is the same difference between drinking moderately within reason and with the exercise of judgement and discretion as there is between sober thought and the hysteria of prohibition.

Anything that will promote true sobriety and punish law breakers, whether laws of man or nature, we sincerely advocate but a corrective measure for evil which punishes everyone regardless of their need of it and fails even to reach those who do while making but mockery of the law does not appeal to us.

Reformers may circumscribe geographical lines of "dryness" here and there over the country, even the United States as a whole if they get a real good stampede going, put all our young men within the restricted area but it is to laugh when we see them suddenly frisked out of dry territory into other corners of the world woefully wet and there must concede that it is the man who counts in the solution of the problem of drink—the merits of the man.

What has been the result of this war and the sending of American troops to France? Every other letter we read from the boys "over there" tells of wine, its general use and of champagne and brandy, too. These are the drinks which might be guzzled and come to be known as "booze." It is not so over there where thousands of our young men have stood the test and are pronounced by such rabid former prohibitionists as Dr. Wm. Stidger of San Jose, now at the front, to be the finest most temperate lot of boys he ever saw. Stidger has gone over the situation and writes to his home paper, the Mercury-Herald of San Jose, that our soldiers are the cleanest, soberest lot to be found on the earth. He refutes every story to the contrary and from personal contact and observation. We believe this should put to shame some of the little, narrow minded people who preach a bone dry governor and prohibition for California.

Keep on building character, foster good, encourage moderation and the exercise of will and reason. Then when the test comes of the contact of the world and its temptations, American manhood will rise to the heights of our expectations and ideals even as in the present crisis.

GREAT WORK DONE HERE

Sonoma Red Cross Activities Many. Mrs Schweitzer Instructs Classes

There is a steady growth in the number of our ladies and girls interesting themselves in the different phases of Red Cross work and when the big drive of May 20th starts and Sonoma begins to canvas for the $1500 to be raised in the town, it is a forgone conclusion that we will "go over the top" as we did in the recent Liberty Loan. For then will come the test of true charity and heart response with nothing of the investment appeal as in the drive for takers of 4¼ bonds with Uncle Sam as security.

The Red Cross is the worthiest of all appeals and as Lt. Carter said in a recent address, "when you are asked to give for the Red Cross, for God's sake never refuse," this from a man who had been in the trenches and knew from personal experience how the Red Cross alleviates suffering.

The surgical dressing work done by Sonoma's fair girls and matrons is under the capable direction of Mrs. Lolita Schweitzer, who is spending the summer on her beautiful ranch the former Wickersham place and giving all her spare time to the laudable work of the Red Cross. She took special training in San Francisco in the surgical dressing and other Red Cross requirements and is a skilled and tactful instructress.

Recently the following ladies have registered at the Red Cross rooms in the City Hall: Mesdames G. H. Hotz, R. Hotz, Appleton, Duhring, C. Cutter, Palmer, Little, Angove, W. T. Studley, Erazmus, A. Bates, Hatton, M. Murphy, Schmeideskamp, Robin, J. Kiser, S. Shaw, G. Leiser, A. Cooper, P. Leiser, Trowbridge, Breitenbach, Helberg, Arbogast, Volquardsen, Brown, Cookman, B. F. Campbell, Waltz, Dobbel, Bordson and the Misses Engler, M. Thompson, Pemberton, J. Cooper, McConochie and Koeboom.

At Mrs. Green's surgical dressing room: Mesdames Green, A. M. Thomson, G. Leiser, Waltz, F. Schell, Clements, Stonier, Heggie, Johannsen, Power, Erazmus, Schweitzer, Cassidy, Duhring and Misses Burchard and McConochie.

The following high school girls have recently worked at the surgical dressing room: Providence La Torres, Zolita Bates, Louise Batto, Margaret Caminetti, Louise Forni, and Norma Jansen.

Many women have done more or less knitting for the Red Cross and chief among them is Mrs. Catherine Poppe, mother of Attorney Robert Poppe, who, despite her 89 years, has knit 25 pair of socks and several sweaters and helmets. Another splendid record has been made by Mrs. Barber, who has turned in 19 sweaters, 6 helmets and many pair of wristlets. At Boyes Springs and Caliente, Mrs. Marcucci has not only knit a number of articles herself but has also been instrumental in having a great deal of work done by others in these neighborhoods.

The following articles were shipped last Monday to Santa Rosa Chapter:

18 bed shirts, 17 suits pajamas, 1 pair pajama pants, 2 Belgian garments, 110 sling bandages, 50 T bandages, 3500 gause wipes 2x2, 2 pkg clean muslin, 10 wash cloths, 1 sweaters, 40 pair socks, 1 muffler, 7 helmets, 2 pair wristlets.

Mrs. Felicia Rovai and daughters are enthusiastic war workers doing much to help in the knitting, selling of thrift stamps and Liberty Bonds.

TULE VISTA WORK

The following is a report of the progress of the Tule Vista School Auxiliary of the Red Cross:

We raised five dollars to cover membership dues for the eighteen members of the school, the said sum being paid at the first meeting of the school auxiliaray committee, as we had started to organize before your committee opened the campaign.

From material collected and donated we have made and turned in 15 wash cloths, 3 comfort pillows, 9 napkins and 1 helmet.

We have completed and ready to turn in 1 pair of wristlets, 1 pair of socks, and are making 5 pair of socks, 1 sweater, 12 wash cloths, 4 comfort pillows. The smaller children have completed 15 knitted six inch squares and are making scrap books. Every pupil has learned or is learning to knit. The material for the above articles was donated.

Among the members of the school we haye disposed of $37.75 worth of thrift stamps. Much interest is being shown in the thrift stamp drive.

We also have a splendid food conservation and production campaign. The" eating between meal" habit is being given up. We have reports of 14 home gardens, besides 4 pigs, 8 rabbits and 4 cows.

San Luis School War Service

6 war stamps—(96 thrift stamps), 15 thrift stamps,35 vegetable gardens, 2 kids, 1 goat, 1 sheep, 7 hogs, 3 geese, 7 turkeys, 74 rabbits anad 40 chickens.

"OH, BOY!" IT IS COMING TO CLINE THEATRE

With the catchy title of "Oh, Boy," the fourth and best of the Prfncess Theatre musical comedies will be presentcd by Messrs Comstock and Elliott at the Cline Theatre, Santa Rosa, Wednesday, May 15th, direct from a run of two years in New York where this smart musical comedy has been playing to capacity business since the opening performance with no appaiant let-up in demand for seats for some time to come.

"Oh, Boy", with Joseph Stanley, is of the intimate variety which this well known producing firm ushered into success with their former successes, "Nobody Home", "Very Good Eddie", and "Go To It". This latest rollicking smart musical comedy will come here with a cast of well known players.

The book and lyrics are by Guy Bolton and P. G. Wodehouse with music by Jerome Kern, and deals with the adventures of an entertaining group of people in a little college town. Jackie Sampson, an actress playing Modesty in the morality play, "Experience", becomes involved in a party in a gay restaurant and hits Constable Simms in the eye, takes his revolver away from him and in making her get-away climbs a fire escape leading into the domitory of a young college professor. This young college chap has just been secretly married to a charming girl who is forced to return home to her parents, leaving behind her a suit of blue pajamas and other finery which she had intended to wear on her honeymoon. The dashing and effervescent actress, followed by the police and Constable Simms, puts on the blue pajamas and forces the college professor to introduce her as his wife. What happens when the real bride returns, together with the complications which ensue when the aunt of the young college professor appears, can better be imagined than described. Suffice to say that "Oh, Boy", lives up to its title.

The seat sale will start at 10 a. m., Saturday. Mail orders will be filled.

Mrs Edna Hall of San Anselmo is ill with the measles.

Mrs. McElroy visited Alameda the first of the week and upon her return brought with her Miss Hein, a cousin, who will be her guest.

Mrs. Agnes Gericke Cooper was here from San Francisco Thursday greeting Sonoma friends. As Miss Agnes Gericke she was a general favorite and her marriage to a young man of Tomales was a social event of last year. They now reside in San Francisco.

22 Million Families in the United States

IF EACH FAMILY saved one cup of wheat flour it would amount to 5,500,000 pounds, or more than 28,000 barrels. If this saving was made three times a week, it would amount to 858,000,000 pounds, or 4,377,000 barrels in a year.

You can do your share in effecting this saving and really help to win the war by omitting white bread from one meal today and baking in its place muffins or corn bread made according to this recipe:

Corn Meal Muffins

¾ cup corn meal
1½ cups flour
½ teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
2 tablespoons sugar
No eggs
1 cup milk
2 tablespoons shortening

MRS. J. A. POPPE IS ILL

The many friends of our esteemed pioneer resident, Mrs. J. A. Poppe. will regret to hear that she has been ill the past week with a severe attack of lumbago. Her daughter, Mrs. Buchan is doing all that is possible for the patient but Mrs. Poppe has suffered considerable pain which on account of her advanced age is hard to bear. Despite her 89 years she has a very rugged constitution and no doubt will be herself again.

Her chief regret is that she cannot be busy with her Red Cross knitting and other work she has on hand.

PETALUMA BOOSTS BOYES BATHS

On Sunday the baths at Boyes Springs opened for the season with the attendance the largest in the history of the resort for the month of May and the Petalumans who were present could scarcely recognize the place owing to the many improvemens made under the new management.

The baths have been enlarged and the new tank has been greatly improved while the new tubs for the exclusive use of guests of the hotel are being extended and new lawns and gardens are laid out while the hotel and all the cottages have been renovated, repainted and in part refurnished. Everything is new, neat and clean and the cuisine has been improved.

The roads leading to the springs are now in fine shape and the baths promise to be very popular with Petalumans this season.

DEATH OF A FATHER

Friends of Mrs. Fred Hansen and Mrs. Geo. Mangels will be sorry to learn of the death of their father, Mr. Terry, which occured in San Francisco this week. Mrs. Hansen lost her mother some time ago and it was then predicted that the life long partner would not live long. Mr. and Mrs. Terry were inseparable companions and before long would have celebrated their golden wedding. Mr. Terry was well known here. Mrs. Hansen went down to the funeral and upon her return home was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Victor Beretta and little son.

MY MOTHER

(The following poem most suitable for Mothers Day, which is tomorrow, is from the pen of Mary L. Carter, mother of the late Mrs. Hall. It has been printed before in a magazine of the east.)

She breathed her songs into an organ's throat,
The musical strains were caught note by note,
And penciled down by a dextrous hand,
Then printed and sold oe'r all the land.

Er'e long other singers caught the sweet strain,
And the beautiful songs were sung again,
By voices, not tremulous and low,
Like the one who sang them long ago.

In the home circle, in her quiet way,
While we children were busy at play;
Oh! that sweet voice I shall ne'r forget,
I oftimes think I can hear it yet.

Born in the breezes the sweet refrain,
Of mother's voice singing to me again,
The song she sang to us in our youth,
That taught us ways of wisdom and truth.

Beautiful visions of maternal love,
Hovering oe'r us like a cooing dove.
Singing low while stars began to peep,
Before "Now I Lay Me Down To Sleep."

MARY L. (Monroe) CARTER.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Perkins and family of Alameda motored up to visit relatives here last Sunday. Mr. Perkins is a brother of Cashier Perkins of the Sonoma Valley Bank. He is patentee and manufacturer of the Marathon heel for shoes.

Mrs. Baretto and family have been up from San Francisco on a visit to their relatives, Mrs. Ruiz and family.

Mrs. Emparan has been extensively entertained while in St. Helena, the guest of her cousin, Edna Frisbie Burnell.

INFRACTIONS OF LAW WILL NOT BE TOLERATED

Particular attention will be given by the authorties now and throughout the season to the manner in which summer resorts are conducted and it has been decided that steps will be taken to compel obedience of the laws, especially as regards the forbidding serving liquors to minors, the employment of minors about resorts, the presence of questionable characters, a strict adherence to the closing and opening hours of bars, and particularly to the serving of liquor after hours.

Some complaints have come to the authorties from a certain section and they are to be investigated and violators of the law will be severely dealth with. The people who have made complaints are demanding that with war conditions existing as they are that this is no time for "rough stuff" being pulled off anywhere.

Information has been furnished to the juvenile court committee and in turn laid before the district attorney who has promised a rigid investigation. Some of the complaints of conditions are of a serious nature.

FIRST CHERRIES

Marysville, April 29.—R. W. Skinner received word today from Joseph De Giorgio of the Earl Fruit Company of New York that the box of first California cherries grown on the Skinner ranch in Sutter county and packed and shipped by H. H. Wolfskill, local representative of the Earl Fruit Company, has sold in New York City for $314. The cherries weighed just ten pounds. At the request of Mr. Skinner the money derived from the sale of the cherries was donated to the American Red Cross, Italian auxiliary. Mrs. Joseph de Giorgio, chairman of the auxiliary, expressed her sincere thanks to Skinner on behalf of the Red Cross.

DEATH CALLS FORMER RESIDENT

D. Codiga Is Buried Under Auspices of Druids

Domenico Codiga, highly esteemer resident of Napa for the past twelve years, breathed his last after a long and painful illness at the family residence on North street at half-past two o'clock in the morning one day last week.

Deceased was a native of Cordola, Switzerland, aged 55 years. He came to the United States twenty-four years ago, settling first in Sonoma.

It was about twelve years ago that he moved to Napa.

Mr. Codiga was a shoemaker by trade, but had been incapacited by illness for nearly two years.

The funeral was held here last Saturday under the auspices of the Sonoma Lodge of Druids. Ed. Codiga, the soldier son of deceased, came up from Camp Kearney for the funeral. It was attended by many friends and relatives of Mr. Codiga. His widow is the sister of Mrs A. Pinelli of this place.

Besides his widow these five children survive him: Edward Codiga, now in the service of his country and stationed at Camp Kearny; Mrs. Elvera Swortfigure of Fairfield; and Misses Elsie and Katherine Codiga and Alvin Codiga of Napa.

HOW WET AND DRY ISSUES STRIKES NAPA COUNTY

"We have seen a few political somersauts in the many years of our experience in Napa county, but never before did we witness such a tremendously wide, high and handsome back handspring as that performed by the Republicans on our community in connection with Governor Stephens, and his recent "bone dry" announcement. There didn't seem to be any preliminary discussion as to the advisability of the action to be taken. It came spontaneously like. And it resulted in a most remarkably harmonious and unanimous flip flop. Just as vigorously as these men a few days before endorsed the Governor, just as emphatically did they individually and collectively declare their opposition to him. Far be it known the the Republicans af Napa county are not Prohibitionists and and any man who is a Prohibitionist in this campaign, a campaign in which the "wets" and "drys" are making the issue, cannot hope to claim their support. The Governor was here the other day and made a speech to the rural fire fighters. He didn't mention Prohibition at all, devoting himself exclusively to the question of the hour. Unconsciously, however, he expressed himself in a manner most unexpected, for when the picture was taken in front of the Court House, with the Governor occupying the place of honor in the center of the big group of newly sworn-in rural firemen, the broad banner, "Napa Soda Canyon Fire Department," appeared directly over the Governor's head and it was inadvertantly held in such a manner as to show only the top two words in big red letters: NAPA SODA. The people who see that picture as it is displayed throughout the state will doubt less receive the impression that the Governor had his picture taken with a large and enthusiastic crowd of "dry" admirers in the vineyard county of Napa sometime early in the campaign.

BOYES SPRINGS NOTES

(By our special correspondent)

The big palm was planted in Boyes Park last Saturday. The lawn is coming along fine. Park Commissioer J. Baines had quite a number of plants put in during the week and Head Gardner Frank Tanforan (the McLaren of Boyes) says the new park will be a thing of beauty in a very short time and a credit to Boyes. The residents here are not afraid that Jep Valente and his associates will put in a better park in Sonoma than we have here. Nothing like trying, Jep.

Last Thursday while a pro-German by the name of Rhinehart was denouncing the government and our beloved President in a severe measure he was taken in charge of by T. A. Roe, an officer from San Franciscoo who was standing near. Mr. Roe turned the offender over to Deputy Sheriff Murray who took the man to Santa Rosa where he is now confined in the county jail awaiting trial by the federal authorities.

Henry Newman, who is at Crane's, is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Koenig have sold out their grocery and general merchandise business to Mr. Wagner of Berkeley. The Koenigs sold out on account of the ill health of Mr. Koenig who has not been well for some time. Many at Boyes will miss the Koenigs. They have my very best wishes for the future welfare. Mr. Wagner will aim to please and carry out the example set by the Koenigs.

Remember that next, Saturday May 18th, is the big benefit for the Boyes Fire Department. Racing, fire exhibition, laying of hose, etc., in the afternoon, and moving pictures (The Sunset Trail), entertainment and dance in the evening at the Boyes Springs Theatre. Anyone wishing to assist in this worthy cause kindly communicate with the committee. There will be a house to house canvass for the sale of the dance and entertainment tickets so be prepared to greet the ticket agents. There will be no charge for the afternoon performanee. Everybody welcome. Remember the date, next Saturday the 18th.

News has come from Oakland that Jack Stevens and Georgie Cooper have made a big hit at Bishop's theatre in "The Great Divide."

Mr. O'Connor of the City of Mexico is a guest at Boyes Hotel. Mr. O'Connor has been in Mexico for a number of years being interested in the Mexico City Water Co. He is delighted with the "Valley of the Moon" and may eventually locate here. Let us hope so.

Mr.and Mrs. Morris Newburg of Petaluma are spending their annual two week's vacation at Boyes here for a number of years and are well known all over the Valley.

"Uncle" John Grew, the famous globe-trotter is up and around again having fully recovered from his late sickness. "Uncle" John is going to motor to Los Angeles and Southern California leaving here next Sunday. His nephew, Pete Hester, will occompany him on the trip.

Quite a large crowd attended the opening day of the big swimming tank at Boyes Springs last Sunday.

There has been a large attendance at the Boyes theatre every night to enjoy the movies and the dance. Only the best pictures are shown at the theatre.

Andy Cleary, brother of Jack Cleary of the San Francisco Detective Association is a guest at the Boyes Hotel.

Healdsburg, Santa Rosa, Petaluma, Napa and all places near to Boyes Springs, kindly take notice of the big day at Boyes Springs, Saturday, May 18th. We will welcome you all.

The little "Red Devil", always on the job, was called upon Thursday morning to put out a fire in Sonoma Highlands. It was only a grass fire and there was no loss but it only goes to show that a fire departmen is a necessity and we have it at Boyes Springs.

E. G. Koenig has sold his store at Boyes to P. A Wagner. Mr. Koenig built up a fine business at the Springs but of late has been in poor health.

Misses Cook and Griger of San Francisco have been visiting at the Tony Macucci home near Embarcadero.

Clyde Johannsen is over at Vallejo drilling wells and expects to keep his outfit busy in that section all summer. His father, E. H. Johannsen, expects to go over to the thriving locality today.

Miss Matilda Baccala contemplates a delighful trip to Southern California this month with Mrs. Callieund and her pretty daughter, Louise.

Roy Pauli and party of friends motored to Browns Valley Sunday and pronounce it a fine trip.

NEW BOOK IN SONOMA LIBRARY IS IN BIG DEMAND

Among the newest books at the Sonoma Library selected by Librarian Kate McDonell is one which is proving of startling interest not only here but throughout the United States, although it is hard to get all over at present. It is a book of the intrigue attendant upon the present war and the exposure so complete and damaging that the German agents are said to have bought up copies by the wholesale and destroyed them.

The title of the publication is "My Adventures As a German Secret Agent," by Horst von der Goltz, who was a personage in the Von Papen trials. It is a confession of the agents connection with German intrigue antedating our declaration of war and was made as a choice after Scotland Yard detectives had rounded up the "hidden hand" and gave him the alternative of open confession or a firing squad.

Judge C. C. Cowgill who was the first one to get and read the book from the shelf of the local library pronounced it a wonderful and startling expose of German machinations. He was dumbfounded by the startling confessions within the cover and declared it is by far the greatest book of the war when it comes to revelations.

EXAMINATION FOR HORTICULTURAL COMMISSIONER

This examination is open to anyone. In order to pass the examination the candidate must have a thorough knowledge of the insect and other animal pests, plant diseases, and the noxious weeds of the state, and must be familiar with the horticultural laws and quarantine regulations of California. The duties of the office are to inspect the orchards and supervise the eradication and control of the plant pests and diseases of the county from the introduction of additional pests also to enforce the Fresh Fruit Standardization Law of 1917. In other words, he is the plant health officer of the county. The term is for four years and the salary is not less than $6.00 per day when actually engaged in the performance of his duties.

Full particulars regarding the examination can be obtained by applying to the State Board of Horticultural Examiners, 714 Forum Building, Sacramento.

Louis Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Brown of this place, is enthusiastic over his work in the aero signal corps of the army. He is deeply interested in the balloon signal service and enjoys the training camp life immensely despite the Texas thunder storms and torrential rain. His last letter intimated that he might be ordered to Virginia at any time soon.

DEAD BODY IDENTIFIED

Through the efforts of Coroner F. H. Phillips who left no stone unturned in that effort the body of the man found in the Russian river last Saturday with a submerged wagon and drowned horse as on Wednesday fully identified as that of Alfred De Clerq, a deaf mute who has a little farm in the Todd district near Santa Rosa. The body was identified by means of a photo taken at the order of Coroner Phillips.

De Clerq, who was well known, had left his home on last Friday for an outing in the Russian river district and the neighbors who saw the published description of the remains and the horse and vehicle at once suspected that De Clerq was the victim. The details of the accident will never be known because nobody saw it and not until the rig was found was it known that anybody had been drowned. A search revealed the body as before stated.

Coroner Phillips never buries the bodies of unknown persons without making every effort to secure identification and he has an usual record in this work and has saved many bodies from being buried as unknown.

Since he assumed office, the number of unknown dead buried in this county has been small indeed, some of the bodies having been identified after weeks and in several instances mysteries of missing men and other tragedies have been solved.

CHARMIAN LONDON'S LITERARY WORK PRAISED

Mrs. Charmian K. London, widow of the popular author Jack London is home from New York where she has won new literary honors with her book, "Our Hawaii," and has been commissioned by a leading publisher to write the biography of Jack London which she has contemplated for some time past.

"Our Hawaii" has made a particular appeal to the Hawaii-born and the Hawaiians themselves. The latter are reported as saying that her book is the best that has been written on their Islands, because she has the true understanding of the Hawaiians. As this is the result that she has worked for with all her heart and sympathetic insight, her pleasure can be imagined. Financially the book is proving a big success also. It is a decided success everywhere and Hawaii's second order for the volume was 500 copies, so the president of the MacMillan Co., Geo. Platt Brett, reports.

Mrs. London spent four months in New York and declares it was extreme winter weather all the time, her "comfie" baby seal skin coat being a virtual life saver during the cold spells she experienced. The weather however was offset by the warmth of friendships renewed in the great city and the meeting with many of the Western literary and artistic celebrities from her own California. Among them Mary Austin, Eleanor Gates, "her splendid husband Mr. Moore," Izetta Jewel (Mrs. Brown), Michael Williams, Mrs. Brady (nee Del Valle of the Camelos Rancho of Ramona fame) and many others.

Of the war and New York's spirit Mrs. London was loath to speak but just prior to her leavetaking for the "Valley of the Moon" she attended a demonstration at the Hippodrome where $54,000 was subscribed for the Red Cross within an hour.

The London ranch was waiting in all it's spring charm for the home cooming of its fair young mistress She found everything spick and span despite the present shortage of labor. Shortly after her return home the great out-of-doors lured her into the saddle and she rode 20 miles over to the Adolph Spreckels ranch in Napa county to bring back her favorite mare, Fleet II, which has been bred over there to the famous Voorhees. The London ranch already boasts of a number of Voohees colts, "a most engaging crop of slender thoroughbreds."

Mrs. London is as keenly interested as her late husband in all animals and is enthusiastic over the "Jack London Club," organized by the Society of Prevention of Cruelty to Animals to prevent animal acts and trained animal shows which Mr. London decried in his book, "Michael, Brother to Jerry." It is being taken up by the San Francisco branch and also in Los Angeles. Mrs. London has granted permission to the Los Angeles branch to call their rescue home the Jack London Animal Rescue Home.

Mrs. London's return from the East is being warmly welcomed throughout the valley where she is generally esteemed.
